

THE LEGAL FOUNDATION OF YOUR INVESTMENT

WHY INVESTING IN COLOMBIA BEGINS WITH UNDERSTANDING THE LAW—NOT THE PROPERTY.

INTRODUCTION

Every investment carries risk.

The difference between a secure investment and an uncertain one is not the country—it is the process.

At CHIHIZA, we believe that legal certainty comes before architecture, before design and even before selecting a property.

For that reason, every project begins with a structured legal review based on the Colombian Constitution, national legislation and the competent public authorities.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION

Key articles that protect your investment

	Article 58	Protects private property rights.
	Article 83	Establishes the principle of good faith.
	Article 84	Prevents authorities from imposing requirements beyond those established by law.
	Article 333	Guarantees economic freedom and private initiative.
	Article 334	Defines the State's role in regulating economic activity while protecting the public interest.

The Constitution is the first layer of protection for every lawful investment made in Colombia.

HOW LEGAL PROTECTION WORKS

Every property passes through multiple independent verification stages before we recommend moving forward. Our objective is not to sell faster. Our objective is to reduce uncertainty before capital is committed.
